BOY TO OWN THE LEG.

But Yip Achieves Fame as a Factor in the Scientific Experiment.

The Graft Will Likely Be Examined To-Morrow.

Great Gratification at "The Evening World's" History of the Case.

It was reported at the Charity Hospital of Blackwell's Island this morning, that Johnnie Gethin and his pet spaniel Yip were still doing well.

The expressed belief was stronger than ever, too, that the plaster cast encircling their knut-ting legs would be broken very soon, perhaps to-morrow, when it will be definitely known whether the attempt to repair a place of union into the shin-bone of a human being has proven a success or a failure.

The afternoon marks the beginning of the twentieth day since the primary operation was performed. It was not thought probable that an exposure of the graft would be made today, both because of the darkness, and also on account of the required presence of the chief operating surgeon at other institutions, where his professional services are needed each week day.

Sundays, however, the doctor's time is to a certain extent his own, and it is considered not unlikely that to-morrow will witness the examination of the graft, and if successful, will be followed by the secondary operation, the severing of Yip's leg-bone, divorcing her entirely from Johnnie and leaving at an inch or her osseous tissue firmly grown into his leg-shin-bone.

Yesterday's EVENING WORLD was in great demand at the hospital this morning, as it was everywhere, a special feature being the illustrated explanation of what are believed to be the exact relative positions of the two patients, the process of completing the operation and the way Johnnie's leg will appear when fully restored to a perfect, sound condition.

The EVENING WORLD enterprise was loudly commended by the hospital authorities and, in fact, many of whom are believed to be satisfied that they had not before been able to clearly understand the operation.

The paper had also reached the sick-room where the story of the operation and illustrations were eagerly scanned. Johnnie's illness was the subject of the paper, and it was noted that the paper had been sent to the patient's parents so that they might have a clearer idea of the great scientific experiment in which he is the chief actor.

Yip also ceased to whine, and wagged her tail with an activity that threatened destruction to the plaster cast, to show that while she was unable to read the story she appreciated the fact that she was "in it," and did not propose to have her importance ignored.

Dr. Newman had not emerged from his private room at the time of the reporter's visit, and no opinion was to be had from him regarding the operation, but other attendants of the institution were enthusiastic over the fact that the operation was performed.

The prospect of a speedy examination of the graft has awakened a new topic for discussion among the hospital authorities.

If it is true, as is now confidently believed, that bone-union is actually existing between Johnnie's and Yip's leg bones, would not the operation upon Yip's leg cause the same sensation to be experienced by Johnnie as by the dog these doctors and theorists imagine.

If bone-union does exist between the two patients, they argue that Yip is a part of Johnnie, and therefore, Johnnie is a part of Yip, or, in other words, that they are vitally connected.

From this they deduce the belief that when Yip's leg bone is again severed it will be as if Johnnie's leg were severed and he will suffer just as much pain as Yip.

It will, therefore, be necessary, they claim, to administer anæsthetics to Johnnie as well as to Yip, before their common leg is amputated, and that he will experience no suffering when the secondary operation is performed.

Indirectly the publication of the news regarding the case of Johnnie and Yip has brought a noticeable improvement at the hospital dock. For months the landing has been a rickety and actually unsafe condition, and nothing was done to remedy the situation.

Since the dock and the dog have been made public, however, the number of visitors has been largely increased at the hospital, especially on Sundays. Not being able to see the celebrated patients they have been obliged to content themselves with visiting the building and the island, and the rotten old dock has come in for the share of inspection and unanimous condemnation.

These adverse comments have evidently had a good effect upon the Department officials, for to-day workmen were busily engaged in repairs upon the rotten timber preparatory to entirely rebuilding the docks.

PARNELL CRISIS.

Gladstone's Ultimatum Presented to the Irish Members.

No More Negotiations Till the Present Leader Retires.

Nationalists Will Resign Unless Parnell Steps Down.

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Nationalist members met again at noon to-day.

The delegates appointed to wait upon Mr.
Gladstone presented his reply.

They report that with regard to the constantly and urgent questions Mr. Gladstone assured them that no Liberal Ministry would or could propose any measure of Home Rule which would not be acceptable to the Irish people, whose rightful aspirations it was the intention of the Liberal party to meet.

It is reported that Mr. Parnell expressed his disatisfaction with this reply in unmistakable terms, and a heated debate followed.

The majority pressed immediate action—a decision, yes or no.

They threatened to resign in a body unless Parnell accepted Gladstone's assurances and retired.

LATER.—Mr. Sexton has given Parnell until 6 p. m. to resign, and declares that should he fail to do so a separate meeting of the majority will be held.

The meeting then adjourned for lunch.

After the reassembling of the members Mr.
Aurthur Kenney moved that Mr. Parnell be requested to vacate the chairmanship of the party.

Mr. Parnell refused to allow the motion to be put, whereupon Mr. McCarthy, followed by fourty-four other members, left the room.

Minister Phelps Sails for Germany.
William Walter Phelps, United States Minister to Germany, accompanied by his daughter, sailed at noon to-day on the steamship Werre for his post of duty.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1890.

H. K. Thurber Says He Is Safe, but Has Indorsed for Higgins's Firm.

The Higgins Firm Has Reorganized as a Corporation.

Rumors which have been in circulation for several days past, affecting the financial standing of a prominent mercantile house in this city have not been set at rest.

From the statement of Francis B. Thurber and his brother, Horace K. Thurber, a special partner in the firm, it appears that Thurber, Whyland & Co., the big wholesale grocery, of West Broadway, are not in any difficulties, although H. K. Thurber admits that he has large personal liabilities on paper which he indorsed for Charles K. Higgins & Co., the big soap manufacturers, of Brooklyn.

According to Mr. Thurber's statement the Higgins' firm has been embarrassed for some time past for want of ready money, and were carrying a very large account.

The stringency of the money market was the cause of the difficulty, added to the fact that a large portion of the Higgins property was tied up in real estate.

Mr. Thurber had indorsed the firm's paper to a very large amount, and had been doing so for several years past, as he had known Mr. Higgins for nearly half a century, and had the utmost confidence in his judgment in business matters.

When the firm became embarrassed, in order to prevent any suspension Mr. Thurber's name and several other creditors had arranged for the dissolution of the Higgins firm and its reorganization as a corporation under the name of the Charles K. Higgins Company, in which the creditors should have an active interest.

"This would enable the firm to tide over its difficulties and avoid any trouble which would necessarily follow an assignment."

At the Higgins soap factory, Clinton and Park avenues, Brooklyn, this morning, it was found that business had been practically suspended for several days, and that the clerks were only able to get out a few orders for the new corporation.

Charles K. Higgins came to the factory from his home in Bayview, L. I., about 10 o'clock, and told an EVENING WORLD reporter that whatever Mr. Thurber had said regarding the affairs of the company was correct, and he would stand by it.

"The firm has already dissolved," he said, "and the certificate of incorporation of the new company has been filed at Albany."

"A meeting of the directors will be held very shortly to elect officers, as this has not yet been done."

"Mr. Horace K. Thurber is one of the directors of the new company, and will take an active interest in the management of its affairs. That is all I care to say about the matter at present. There has been no failure, but the firm has been reorganized."

Mr. Thurber says that he is good for every cent of his liabilities as an indorser of Higgins & Co.'s paper, but he is not prepared to pay it, but it is not probable that he will be.

One cause of his re-organization is that the Higgins firm was in a position to receive a large amount of business from the Higgins firm, and the Higgins firm was in a position to receive a large amount of business from the Higgins firm, and the Higgins firm was in a
